

MIAMI

THE BEST OF THE CITY

2015 is officially here! And let's face it: After the tinsel is put away and the Champagne-fueled countdowns are over, the new year can be somewhat of a downer. But we resolved to change all that by scouring the city to bring you the ne plus ultra of what Miami has to offer. Our findings cover culture, health & beauty, style, design, and food & nightlife with the Modern Luxury élan you've come to know and love. Plus: Each section reveals the results of our Readers' Choice survey in which you told us what your favorites are in the aforementioned categories. So turn the page and enjoy. In with the new! In with the best!

READERS' CHOICE: FAVORITE CATERERS & EVENT PLANNERS

The city's party magicians understand that celebration is an art form.

PERFECT BITES
Anchovy mousse hors d'oeuvres by Le Basque

- 1. LE BASQUE From private gatherings for President Barack Obama and Carolina Herrera to corporate events for Chanel and Hermès, Le Basque understands white-glove service quite well. lebasque.com
- 2. A JOY WALLACE Widely acknowledged as the doyenne in her field, namesake Joy Wallace recently celebrated 25 years of creating good taste for millions of others to enjoy. ajoywallace.com
- 3. SHIRAZ EVENTS If impossibly good-looking men greet you at the door with silver trays of chilled Champagne, you know Shai Tertner and Yaniv Cohen's party tactics are on. shirazevents.com
- 4. KARLA: CONCEPTUAL EVENT EXPERIENCES Owner Karla Dascal's bespoke soirees ("from the invitations to the trays to the flowers," as she describes it) put her in a category all her own. karlaevents.com
- 5. INIMITABLE EVENTS Meticulous attention to logistics have made KeAira Chantell Gamble a favorite among brides and grooms looking for memorable receptions. inimitableevents.com

